8. Explanation of Q2/2026 business results:

In Q2/2026, the parent company's revenue grew compared with the same period of 2025. However, as most key projects remain under implementation and do not yet qualify for revenue recognition, revenue stayed low while operating expenses continued to accrue, resulting in a negative profit after tax. Specifically, parent company revenue reached VND 144.93 billion (up 105% vs. Q2/2025), with profit after tax of negative VND 7.12 billion.

The subsidiary (Smart Technology Investment and Development JSC) recorded revenue of VND 18.28 billion, down 2% vs. Q2/2025, but results remained limited as new products and services have yet to generate revenue; profit after tax was negative VND 0.39 billion.

Consolidated Q2/2026 results: revenue reached VND 162.58 billion, up 82% vs. Q2/2025, with consolidated profit after tax of negative VND 7.32 billion.
